A Tribute to a Man and a Bull

REASSURING to the experienced breeder and an inspiration to the beginner is the progress made by Dr. Nauman, as reflected in his second annual sale offering. Buying the first of his foundation in the Hallwood Dispersion four years ago, he has made consistent additions from the leading herds of the central west, displaying rare observation and judgment in conforming to one type and combinations of confidence-giving ancestry.

Exacting he has been. No matter what fancy the pedigree might hold for the student of Shorthorn lineage, individuality was his supreme requisite. Successful in the medical profession, he has paralleled his attainments in science with his accomplishments as a breeder of Shorthorns. Henceforth, a list of the front rank breeders of this country must include his name in prominent relation to others.

Few breeders after an entire lifetime spent in the business have reached such goals as he has already gained. His offering is of rare balance in all divisions, from the bulls through to the open heifers, most properly conditioned for the occasion, and the select few of the get of his chief herd bull, Imp. Brandsby's Officer, which are spared for this sale, leave unquestioned his position as a sire, and add materially to the value of the great females that sell with his calves at foot or in calf to his service.

WALTER L. MILLER,
Of The Breeders' Gazette.

This herd has passed the first stage in being placed on the accredited list—130 head without a suspect. Cattle sold subject to sixty day test.

O. W. NAUMAN.
